

ART WITH JANE MONTEITH

COURSE POLICIES

OBJECTIVE

You've paid to be here so I take my classes seriously and try my very best to provide you with professional yet fun, up to date, valuable content. My goal, by the end of this program, is for you to have learned new techniques, gained additional knowledge and honed your art skills. As well, been left feeling inspired; sparking fresh new ideas and creative direction into your work that results in sellable art with your own special style:) I am honoured to be part of your creative journey.

YOUR COURSE JOURNEY

I encourage you to complete all the projects in this program, whether you choose to go at your own pace, when content gets released weekly, or by following along with the *Facebook group and sharing your work. The video content in this course is available to you 24/7/365. You have lifetime access to this program so you may stop/re-watch whenever you wish. While the exclusive Facebook group is not mandatory, it is highly recommended you join/participate as there are many artists from different countries, all at various levels of expertise. Weekly LIVE Q+A's are recorded and saved within the community for those that can't attend the scheduled times. Additional tips, resources and recommendations always come up within the community which makes it a valuable component of the program.

COURSE CONTENT

This course is for inspirational purposes only. It is here to help you gain knowledge, learn new techniques and improve your skills for successful application into your art. All content is copyright material of Jane Monteith Art and is not to be duplicated in any way. While it is important to copy style and techniques from this program in order to learn, duplicating artwork (creating an exact copy) for resale/financial gain is copyright infringement. All video content is owned solely by Jane Monteith Art and is not to be used/reproduced for teaching purposes in any other courses/programs.

FACEBOOK COMMUNITY GUIDELINES

Once inside the Facebook group, you will be able to locate weekly scheduled live Q+A events, download all files, request help, share art, source additional supplies, build relationships and participate in discussion threads. It is also the best way to find me to ask questions! Please remember to read the community rules upon entry and be kind and courteous to others. Only members like yourself who have paid into this program will be granted access to the group.

*The Facebook group is run by Jane Monteith Art and can/may be subject to changes at any time.
